The Scholarship Program of the Alabama A&M University Alumni Association, Inc. provides funding for academically talented students. The Association will award a minimum of two (2) $5,000.00 scholarships annually for the Academic Year, in addition to other amounts.

The scholarship award is payable in equal parts for the fall and spring semesters. Recipients whose grade point average falls below 3.0 after the first semester may forfeit their second semester benefits.

The scholarship award is valid for only one year. The recipient must reapply each year.

The scholarship is available to incoming freshmen, current Alabama A&M University students and students transferring from community colleges and other four-year institutions of higher education who meet the eligibility requirements. Students currently receiving full scholarship awards from Alabama A&M University are ineligible for scholarship awards from the Alumni Association.

Please refer to the Scholarship Application Procedures to ensure you are eligible and submit the required documentation by March 1, the scholarship deadline.

The application and required documentation should be mailed to: Alabama A&M University Alumni
