

2018 AAMU Alumna of the Year

Erica L. McClain is a 1991 graduate of Alabama A&M University where she received a B.S. in Business Administration with a concentration in Logistics & Procurement. She also received a M.S. in Management with a concentration in Contract Management from Florida Institute of Technology.

Ms. McClain is employed with the U.S. Army Contracting Command at Redstone Arsenal, AL as a Contract Specialist where she is the overseer of over $200 million in contracts for major weapon systems and subsystems, components, ancillary equipment, supplies and services.

Ms. McClain is a life member of the National AAMU Alumni Association and currently serves as the Hospitality Chair. She is responsible for sending expressions to members or in support of deceased members, coordinating the Alumni Homecoming “Big Tent” tailgate event, decorating for the Founder’s Day Alumni Scholarship award’s breakfast, coordinating and providing food/refreshment and entertainment in the Hospitality Suites for the Alumni Association during Founder’s Day, A&M Homecoming, & Magic City Classic. She has served in several leadership roles within the Huntsville-Madison County Alumni Chapter over the past 22+ years as an active chapter member.

Ms. McClain is the recipient of several awards for her work in the National AAMU Alumni Association and the Huntsville-Madison County Alumni chapter. Her service and leadership continue throughout the community as a volunteer of many charitable organizations which include the North Alabama Sickle Cell Foundation, NAACP Reading STEP Program and other non-profit organizations. She is a Board Member of the Art City Institute and Foundation (ACIF) housed on the campus of Alabama A&M University and serves as the church secretary of Little Elk Missionary Baptist in Athens, AL. Ms. McClain is a financial supporter of the University and the Alumni Association and is instrumental in raising the awareness of the importance of giving back and becoming a member of AAMU Alumni Association, Inc. She has mentored several students attending A&M and believe helping and supporting students is the key to developing a dedicated Alum.
