

Sarah H. Williams Hrobowski

2019 AAMU Alumna of the Year

Native of Mobile, Alabama and is a graduate of Central High School, Mobile, AL. Alabama A & M University (1964) Major in Home Economics and Minor in General Science. Master' Degree in Secondary School Administration, Centenary College of Louisiana. My sister and many relatives are AAMU graduates.

Work Experience:

- Mobile County Public Schools, Mobile, AL
- Mad River Township School System, Dayton, Ohio
- Mt. Clemens Public School System, Mt. Clemens, Michigan
- Tacoma Public Schools, Tacoma, Washington
- Department of Defense (DOD Schools) Izmir, Turkey
- Fairfax County School System Annandale, Virginia
- Moss Point School System, Moss Point, Mississippi

Honors and Awards:

- Teacher of the Year at the Local and School levels
- Class of 1964 Class Achievement Award
- William Hooper Council Award
- AAMU Alumni Association President's Citation Award (1998)
- Class of 1964 Co-Class Agent for the Golden Reunion

Community and Religious

- Member State Street AME Zion Church, Mobile, AL Coordinator for the church Food Pantry which is operated by my husband.
- Past District Director of Adults in the Jackson District Christian Education Departments

- Workshop presenter in the Just for Seniors Program
- Etiquette Workshop presenter for High School Summer Interns
- Assistance League Mobile where we make Therapeutic Dolls for sick children
- Delta Theta Omega Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. worked on various committees on the local and district levels
- Bible Study Fellowship (BSF)
- President of the Greater Mobile Area Alumni Chapter (Alabama A & M University)
- Advisory Board of the Gulf Coast Challenge
- Advisory Board of the Kiwanis Boys and Girls Club, Mobile, AL

Family

- Married to James R. Hrobowski, Jr. AAMU Associate Member
- Son: Eric P. Sutton

Hobbies:

- Reading, traveling, cooking, attending AAMU football games, and socializing with my friends.

My philosophy: In life if there is not a trail for you to follow—BLAZE ONE.